

The rules should serve the public, rather than private interests. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. Consolidation is not in the best interests of the public. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.